

Second Proactive Provincial Allocation of PPE on the Way

April 21, 2020 – The province is in the process of confirming a second proactive PPE allocation out to the regions. Just under two weeks ago, 6.5 million surgical/procedural masks were distributed, including one million for the West Region. The exact equipment and total numbers have not yet been confirmed.